

Aboriginal Women's Research Assistant and Evaluation (AWRAE) Training Project

The AWRAE Training Project is a new initiative to be delivered across three identified trial sites (Carnarvon, Broome and Derby) with a key focus and intent to train and support 24 local Aboriginal women to become Research and Evaluation Assistants.

- Will run May 2021 - April 2022, following school terms and breaks.
- Non-Accredited Training - Awarded a Certificate of Completion at end of course.
- We will aim to secure employment for participants after course completion.
- Part-time training (3 Days x 5 Hours for 40 weeks).
- Mix of Classroom Training, Self-Paced Training and TAFE Courses.
- External Training Support.
- Indigenous Mentors.
- Creche provided.
- Paid Training - top up payment $150 per week x 52 weeks.